

Training & Workshops by Healthy Cities Tutoring for the 2018-2019 school year

Date Location & Time Topic Presenter(s) Additional Info	Wednesday, October 17, 2018 White Oaks Multi Use Room, 8:30-10:30 am or 6:30-8:30 pm New Tutor Training Shannon Logie & Kim Norgaard, teachers at Heather and White Oaks School, and Julie Jobak, CMS School Counselor - Main training of the year for new & existing tutors - Overview of how to help children one-on-one in the areas of reading, writing and math - Suitable for new and existing Healthy Cities tutors, parents and para-educators.
Date Location & Time Topic Additional Info	Tuesday, October 30, 2018 Hawes Elementary School Library, 6:30 – 7:30 pm Tutor Information Session, presented by Healthy Cities Staff - Information about being a Healthy Cities tutor. Suitable for prospective tutors who have not attended any of the previous training or information sessions.
Date Location & Time Topic Presenter(s) Additional Info	Thursday, November 8, 2018 Clifford School Library, 6:30 – 8:00 pm New Tutor Training Shannon Cody & Michele Edelstein, teachers at Clifford - Overview of how to help children one-on-one in the areas of reading, writing and math - Suitable for new and existing Healthy Cities tutors, parents and para-educators.
Date Location Time & Topic Additional Info Time & Topic Presenter Additional Info	Wednesday, January 16, 2019 Central Middle School Library 6:15 – 6:50 pm: Tutor information session, presented by Healthy Cities Staff Information about being a Healthy Cities tutor. Suitable for prospective tutors who have not attended any of the previous training or information sessions. 7:00 – 8:30 pm: Workshop “Tutor Tips” Melissa Brenner and Tracey Mitchell-Ardwan, teachers at White Oaks - Math games to help your students practice basic facts - Strategies to help the reluctant writer - Sharing successes and concerns with other tutors - Suitable for Healthy Cities tutors and para-educators.
Date Location Time & Topic Additional Info Time & Topic Presenter(s) Additional Info	Tuesday, February 12, 2019 Central Middle School Library 6:15 – 6:50 pm: Tutor information session, presented by Healthy Cities Staff Information about being a Healthy Cities tutor. Suitable for prospective tutors who have not attended any of the previous training or information sessions. 7:00 – 8:30 pm: Workshop “How to Support Your Student in Math” Sheila Sevilla, 4th grade teacher and Hillary Wiessinger, middle school math teacher - Open to Healthy Cities tutors, parents and para-educators.
Date Location Time & Topic Additional Info Time & Topic Presenter(s) Additional Info	Tuesday, March 19, 2019 Central Middle School Library 6:15 – 6:50 pm: Tutor information session, presented by Healthy Cities Staff Information about being a Healthy Cities tutor. Suitable for prospective tutors who have not attended any of the previous training or information sessions. 7:00 – 8:30 pm: Workshop (topic to be determined) tbd - Open to Healthy Cities tutors, parents and para-educators.